1 Zone Strong

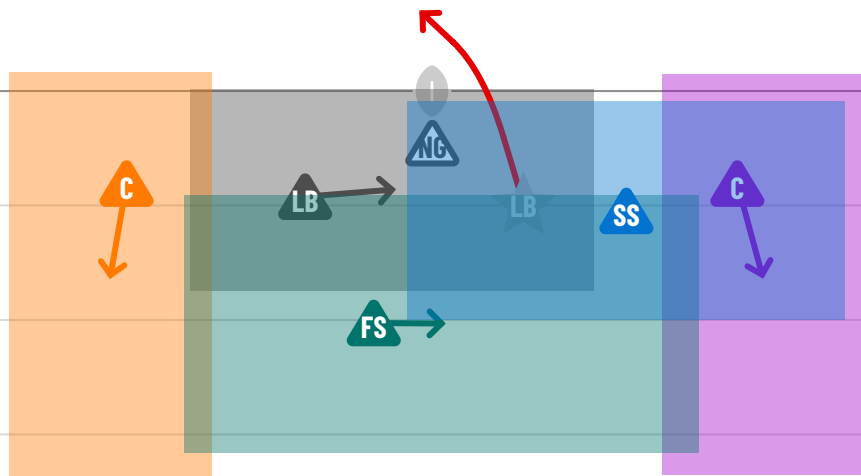

3 Zone Prevent

The diagram illustrates the Zone Prevent rule in a 4x4 grid. The grid is divided into four 2x2 quadrants, each with a different background color: orange (top-left), teal (top-right), blue (bottom-left), and purple (bottom-right). A central 2x2 area is shaded gray. A gray circle with the letter 'I' is positioned above the center of the grid. Below it, a black triangle with 'NG' is placed in the center of the gray area. Four colored triangles with arrows point downwards from the center of each quadrant: an orange triangle labeled 'C' in the top-left, a teal triangle labeled 'LB' in the top-right, a blue triangle labeled 'LB' in the bottom-left, and a purple triangle labeled 'C' in the bottom-right. Additionally, a teal triangle labeled 'FS' is located in the bottom-left quadrant, and a blue triangle labeled 'SS' is located in the bottom-right quadrant.

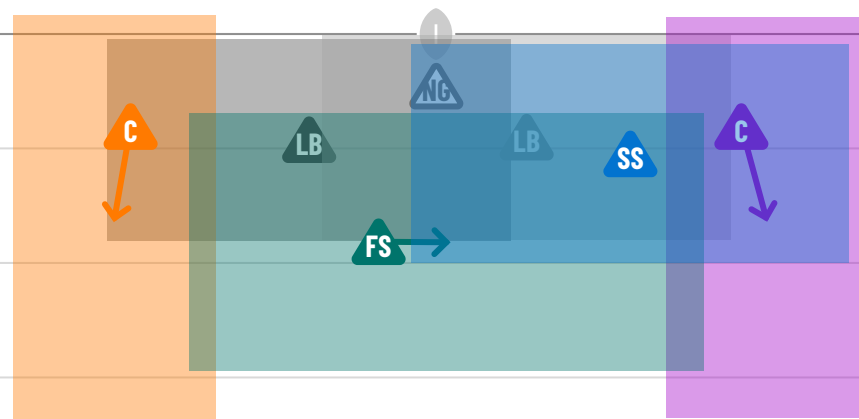

4 Zone Strong Blitz

The diagram illustrates a 4 Zone Strong Blitz defensive scheme. The field is divided into four zones: orange (left), grey (middle-left), blue (middle-right), and purple (right). An orange cone labeled 'C' is in the orange zone. A black triangle labeled 'LB' is in the grey zone. A green triangle labeled 'FS' is in the grey/blue boundary. A blue triangle labeled 'LB' is in the blue zone. A blue triangle labeled 'SS' is in the blue zone. A purple cone labeled 'C' is in the purple zone. A red arrow points from the blue zone towards the end zone. A grey circle labeled 'NG' is at the line of scrimmage.
